

Story Board

The Story is about the description and basic flow of online furniture ordering system

Story Board

Admin should be able to modify or delete supplier details

Stock data base should be maintained for all products

Automatic check and order option should be available to maintain stock level for all items.

Stock report should be available on demand

Maximum number of products that are to be ordered are three. And the details of the product are to be shown before placing the order

If the supplier makes a supply then stock and supplier file should be updated.

Payment should be carried out as per the report shown by the supplier

On transaction bill should be generated and displayed to the customer

```
graph LR; A[Checks if they are any discounts.] --> B[Finished]
```

Checks if they are any discounts.

Finished